

Ischemic colitis of whole colon

Diffuse edematous change of colonic wall (arrows in A & B) are seen in Ischemic colitis on CT. Ischemic bowel is typically a disease of the elderly (age > 60 years) where atherosclerotic disease or low flow states are usually the cause. Presenting symptoms include abdominal pain and bloody diarrhea. Tenderness may be present particularly of the left side of the abdomen.